

Unit 6 Study Sheet

Describe the term cottage industry:

Give the significance of each invention:

Spinning jenny-

Water powered mills-

Steam engine-

Why was England especially well situated for the industrial revolution?

Give the significance of each:

England's Midlands-

Manchester-

Liverpool-

Ruhr Valley-

Rotterdam-

Why was Detroit ideally situated to be the center of manufacturing for the U.S.?

What happened to the auto jobs of Detroit?

1.

2.

3.

Why are the "Auto Alley" interstate corridors of I-66 and I-75 ideal for car manufacturing?

1.

2.

3.

4.

Make a word web for the big picture changes that happened to the U.S. economy in the late 20th century (later 1900s, ie 1990s):

What was the Fordist model of production?

Give two big factors that allowed for a variety of supply chain locations in U.S. auto manufacturing:

- 1.
- 2.

Using Weber's theory of industrial location, describe where each would be located:

Steel manufacturing-

Paper manufacturing-

Auto manufacturing-

Give an example of economic activity from each sector:

Primary-

Secondary-

Tertiary-

Quaternary-

Quinary-

List 4 key NICs:

In Rostow's Stages of Development, which stage would NICs be a part of?

Describe each from Wallerstein's World Systems Theory:

Core-

Periphery-

Semiperiphery-